urging them to stay deeply rooted in the AdtU family, embarking on a journey of meaningful participants. His call to action included engaging in impactful roles such as Board of Studies membership and serving as influential speakers for webinars and events.

Dr. Mrinmoy Basak, Director of International Affairs, from the Directorate of International Affairs, AdtU, wove heart warming tales that tugged at the string of nostalgia, fostering an even stronger sense of camaraderie among the attendees. Through shared stories, laughter, and a palpable sense of belonging, the bonds between the Alumni were fortified, bridging gaps in time and distance.

This gathering wasn't just an event it was an testament to the enduring spirit of AdtU graduates. The first International Alumni Meet exemplified the power of connection, enabling graduates to forge new alliances, rekindle old friendship, and stand united with their Alma Mater. This night will resonate through the annals of AdtU's history as a milestone where unity and mutual support merged, creating ripples that will inspire generations to come.

All the Alumni participants of the meet came up to stage one by one and shared their personal journeys and appreciated their experience in AdtU. They shared how AdtU has shaped them into individual they are today.

The programme came alive when many participants took the mic one after another to sing some melodious songs. Plenty of photos and video sessions followed until finally, it was time to conclude the event. All the participants then enjoyed lunch together. It was an eventful day and well deserved for all the alumni who cherish their days at AdtU. Assam down town University wishes them success in their future endeavours and hopes that the memories will last them until they meet again to make new ones.
