MINUTES OF ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE MEETING

ITEMS:	DISCUSSIONS & RESOLUTIONS:
1. Outcome of the action taken of the pervious agenda	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Organizing campaign and workshop every semester at the beginning of the semester empowered students to take an active role in preventing ragging and promoting a safe learning environment. By providing them with information about reporting mechanisms, support services, and bystander intervention strategies, students feel more equipped to speak up against ragging or any other stressor and support their peers.
2. Strategies to educate new students about anti-ragging policies and the importance of preventing ragging.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ADTU has decided to include detailed anti-ragging sessions in the orientation program. Discussed and decided to cover constitutes ragging, the institution's zero-tolerance policy, reporting mechanisms, and available support services. • Discussed to invite guest speakers, such as psychologists, and ragging survivors, to share their experiences and insights to educate the students • Discussed to provide welcome kits to new students that include pamphlets or brochures detailing the anti-ragging policy, reporting procedures, and contact information for support services.
